MINUTES OF REGULAR COUNCIL
VERSAILLES CITY HALL/5:30 P.M.

Events Coordinator Elisha Holt stated that the Versailles Merchants Association is hosting another Block Party this Friday, June 21st on Court Street. The event will run from 6:30p.m. – 9:30p.m. and will feature food and live music played by the Bourbon Branch band.

Council member Coleman informed every one of the upcoming Fourth of July events that will be taking place in Versailles. He stated that there will be an 11:00a.m. parade with a ceremony and vendors to follow. Festivities at Falling Springs will begin at 6:00p.m. which will include food, vendors, and Journey Church will be providing entertainment for the children. The fireworks show will begin at 10:00p.m. and he wanted to remind everyone that this is a completely free event which is open to the public.

Events Coordinator Elisha Holt stated that bourbon barrel chairs will be unveiled downtown during the Fourth of July festivities. The City of Versailles sponsored a bourbon barrel chair and it will be put on display along with eleven other chairs. The bourbon barrel chairs will then be moved to Falling Springs for the evening Fourth of July festivities. After the Fourth of July, the chairs will be taken to their prospective sponsors.

Council member Kerkhoff noted that there are five members of the Wayfinding Sub-Committee that are going to physically walk routes in Versailles to find the ideal locations for wayfinding signage. Mr. Kerkhoff is hopeful that the Wayfinding Sub-Committee will have more information of what attractions will be absorbed for signage and cost details in the near future.

Council member Dake proposed that there needs to be another Street Stormwater Cemetery Committee meeting before the next council meeting on Tuesday July 2nd, 2019.
